

KJUS

Kentucky Journal of Undergraduate Scholarship

The Kentucky Journal of Undergraduate Scholarship (KJUS) is a new, peer-reviewed online journal that provides an unparalleled opportunity for undergraduates in Kentucky to publish their work. Topics vary by discipline and are categorized into one of several domains, including:

- Life Sciences
- Engineering
- Social Sciences
- Humanities
- Creative Writing
- Performance Arts

Housed at Eastern Kentucky University, KJUS invites submissions from undergraduate students from all public, private, and community colleges and universities across Kentucky. Students can develop KJUS manuscripts based on:

- their own independent research
- faculty mentored research
- existing coursework

Students can also revise major scholarly works for submission, including:

- mentored scholarly projects or capstone papers from courses
- independent studies with faculty
- thesis projects

We look forward to showcasing student scholarship from the post-secondary institutions across the commonwealth!
